

Call for Associate Editors; and Senior Associate Editors, British Journal of Sports Medicine

BJSM is renewing its Editorial Board for the 2019-20 term. We are looking for Associate Editors and Senior Associate Editors who can work with the Editors team to keep the journal's leading position for most impactful research, education, and practice. These roles will involve:

- Handle peer review and make timely decisions on papers in their field
- Provide feedback to authors and uphold the journal's ethical standards
- Enthusiastically contribute to the journal's vision, scope, and goals
- Commission content and suggest editorial direction and development
- Act as an advocate for the journal

Associate Editor roles will take up some time commitment on a weekly or nearly weekly basis. Senior Associate roles may involve leading a thematic BJSM area, and will take up some time commitment on a weekly basis; training and support will be provided. Applications should be by a brief CV (4-5 pages max), and a statement (up to 1 page) outlining previous editorial experience (not essential) and what you feel you can offer BJSM.

Please contact Profs Karim Khan (karim.khan@ubc.ca) or Emmanuel Stamatakis (emmanuel.stamatakis@sydney.edu.au) if you would like to discuss the role further. Closing date for applications is Monday the 8th of April 2019. To apply please send your CV and statements to bbutcher@bmj.com.
